

AT DANVILLE.

Death of Mr. Nutting. Josiah M. Nutting died Thursday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. R. Dole. He was ill only a short time and his death was the result of a stroke of paralysis which he suffered about a week ago. Mr. Nutting was born in Danville, Feb. 27, 1821, being the son of Samuel and Deliverance Nutting. He was one of a family of five children, Mrs. Dole being the only living member. It is a rather peculiar coincidence that three of the brothers should return to die at the home of their sister. Harvey S. died in Jan. 1898, Almon R., who had lived in California returned the week before his brother Harvey died and Josiah M., who came East in April of this year. Mr. Nutting spent the greater part of his life in Northfield, Minn., going there about 48 years ago. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. H. Cummings, with two selections: "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," and "Abide With Me." The bearers were Nelson A. and Harvey S. Dole, Wallace Nutting and Byron G. Varnum.

BRADFORD.

A pleasant gathering was held at the home of John Worthley, of West Bradford, August 12, it being a reunion of the descendants of his grandfather, Jesse Worthley, who came from Ware, N. H., and settled on the farm where John Worthley now lives, 105 years ago. He married Judith Calif, of Ware, N. H., and both passed the remainder of their lives on the place. His son, B. L. Worthley, was born and died there and John Worthley's children are the fourth generation of Worthleys that have lived on the place.

The company was composed of residents of Bradford, St. Johnsbury, Waterbury, Corinth, West Fairlee, Oxford, N. H., and Malden, and Amesbury, Mass., numbering about 60, all of whom were direct descendants of Jesse Worthley, or husbands or wives of such descendants. Some of the relatives thus assembled had not met for many years and the meeting was a most happy one. Seventeen others who should have been there to make the reunion complete were unable to be present. Most of the time was passed in a social way. Tables were set in the dooryard in which was served a picnic dinner. After dinner the company listened to a few selections of music, the reading of a poem written for the occasion by Henry Taplin, of Newfields, N. H., and brief remarks by Arthur H. Sargent, of the University of Vermont, Burlington, giving items in the history of the family since Thomas Worthley came from Bradford and settled in Ware then called Hale's Town, N. H. about the year 1748. Several photographs of the company were taken.
